7 LEAVE RULES FOR EMPLOYEES – TEACHING & NON-TEACHING

10.1.1 Leave shall be of following categories:

- a. Casual leave;
- b. Sick leave;
- c. Academic leave/ Duty leave;
- d. Maternity leave;
- e. Study Leave;
- f. Leave Without Pay;
- g. Compensatory Casual Leave (CCL).

10.1.2 Casual leave of 12 days in a year shall be on full pay, which may be availed ordinarily for not more than three days in a month and shall not accumulate. For new employees joining the Institute in the mid of the academic session, the admissible casual leave for that session shall be calculated on the basis of one casual leave per month of service. It cannot be combined with any other leave.

10.1.3 Sick leave for a maximum of 10 days in a year may be availed and this leave shall not accumulate. 50% of the total emoluments shall be admissible during such leave.

Provided that only full-time employees having at least two years of service shall be granted this leave. Sick leave shall normally be granted when the employee is hospitalized and/or is unable to resume his duties for subsequent recovery in the hospital/home as per advice of the attending doctors for which certificate of the doctor will be required.

Provided that the employee shall produce fitness certificate before rejoining after such sick leave.

Further, provided that management at its discretion, may get the employee medically examined by Chief Medical Officer and after being declared medically fit he/she may be allowed to rejoin his/her duties.

10.1.4 Academic leave/ Duty leave up to 10 working days but not more than 10 days in continuation, in an academic year shall be on full pay for attending meetings of any of the University bodies, ad hoc committees and conferences, of which an employee may be ex-officio member or invited for presenting technical / scientific paper, talk or chairing a session of conference / symposium / workshop etc., to which he may have been nominated by the Institute / University and for conducting examination of the University. Duty leave shall not accumulate. For new employees joining the Institute in the mid of the academic session, the admissible Duty leave for that session shall be calculated on the basis of one Duty leave per month of service.

10.1.5 Maternity Leave facility will be admissible to only those female employees who have completed three years of service in the Institute. Under other circumstances, leave as due may be granted. The time period for maternity leaves may be maximum up to 3 months. A female employee who has been on Maternity Leave shall produce a satisfactory medical certificate of her fitness when she resumes her duty from the concerned hospital or a registered medical practitioner.

10.1.6 Study Leave may be granted to such teachers of the Institute who have been in Institute service continuously at least for three years. This facility shall be available for pursuing higher studies leading to Ph.D. Degree, provided the same are approved by the Management.

Period of such leave shall not exceed duration of the course work. In no case it shall not be more than six months. During this period 50% of salary will be provided and the candidate would be required to sign a bond that he/she will be rejoining within due period of time.

At a given time not more than 15% of the existing faculty in a department, may be granted study leave.

10.1.6 In case any Non-Teaching employee desires to proceed on Study Leave for acquiring higher skills he / she may be permitted on terms similar to the faculty members as mentioned in above paragraph.

10.1.7 In case the faculty does not have any leave in his / her account, Leave Without Pay (LWP) may be granted to him after satisfying with the genuineness of the requirement of leave. LWP must be sanctioned before the employee proceeds on leave. LWP will not be treated as a break in service, and the continuity of service shall be maintained.

Provided also that such teachers, as are selected for Teachers Fellowship, or for training or study in a foreign country, or who wish to study further may be granted LWP for the duration of such fellowship, training or study.

Further provided that in no case the duration of such leave shall be more than 3 years.

Provided that a faculty member has to serve at least two years in GGCP before taking any kind of leave of more than six month duration inclusive of all.

However, if the faculty member proceeds on leave without obtaining prior approval, remains absent from duty for three or more days without intimation, and the Principal is satisfied that this absence on the part of the faculty is intentional, the LWP will not be sanctioned subsequently, the salary equivalent to twice the period of absence shall be deducted and the entire period of absence will be treated as break in service.

10.1.8 Compensatory Leave will be allowed to Staff

Staff may be sanctioned compensatory leave if they are called on duty on Sundays/Holidays. Provided that CCL shall be permissible only for duties required by GGCP/University.

10.1.9 Leave cannot be claimed as a matter of right. If the exigencies of the occasion demand, the sanctioning authority may refuse leave of any kind and may even cancel the leave already granted.

10.1.10 The authority competent to grant leave to all employees will be the Principal. Leave to the Principal shall be sanctioned by the Management.

10.1.11 Teaching staff may avail vacations for two weeks during summer vacations and one week winter break timings. The slot as per the requirement will be decided by the Principal of the Institute.

- Faculty members who attend an international seminar or conference should work on publishing their work in a reputable international journal.
- Copies of participation certificates, best paper certificates, and other relevant certificates should be handed over to the Principal/HR/IQAC.

9. CODE OF CONDUCT FOR EMPLOYEES

9.1 Faculty Members

Whereas a faculty member, conscious of his responsibilities and the trust placed in him to mould the character of the youth and to advance knowledge, intellectual freedom and social progress, is expected to realize that he can fulfill the role of moral leadership more by example than by precept through a spirit of dedication, moral integrity and purity in thought, word, and deed;

Now, therefore, keeping with the dignity of his calling, this code of conduct is hereby laid down to be truly and faithfully observed:

- 9.1.1 Every faculty member shall perform his academic duties with absolute integrity, commitment and devotion.
- 9.1.2 A faculty member shall maintain a high level of subject knowledge and ensure that course content delivered is current, accurate, and appropriate with reference to the position of the subject within the students' course of study.
- 9.1.3 No faculty member shall show any partiality or bias in the assessment of the students nor shall he practice victimization against them.
- 9.1.4 No faculty member shall incite one student against another or against his colleagues or the Institute authorities.
- 9.1.5 No faculty member shall discriminate against any pupil on grounds of caste, creed, sect, religion, gender, nationality or language. He shall also discourage such tendencies amongst his colleagues and students and shall not use the above considerations for the improvement of his own prospects.
- 9.1.6 No faculty member shall refuse to carry out the task assigned to him by the competent authority and the decisions of the appropriate bodies and functionaries of the Institute, as the case may be.
- 9.1.7 No faculty member shall divulge any confidential information relating to the affairs of the Institute, as the case may be, to any person, not authorized in respect thereof.

9.2 Non-teaching staff

Non-teaching staff shall include all employees of the Institute who are not in the teaching cadre and who are employed in the Institute in whatsoever position, whether temporary or permanent or on contract basis.

- 9.2.1 Every employee shall at all times, conduct himself in a dignified manner to keep up high traditions of the Institute. Any infraction would constitute improper conduct.

9.2.2 Every employee shall maintain highest order of integrity, commitment, and sincerity with regard to his work and conduct.

9.2.3 Every employee shall comply with the orders or directions of the Officer to whom he is reporting, the Principal and the Management.

9.2.4 The Principal shall maintain the character roll of every employee in which the confidential report about his work and conduct shall be recorded every year. Adverse entries shall be communicated to the employee concerned, as soon as possible, so that he may improve his work and conduct accordingly.

9.2.5 An employee, aggrieved by an adverse entry, may represent to the Management through the Principal, for the expunction of the adverse entry. The power to expunge the adverse entry, on the basis of justification, shall vest in the Committee appointed by the Management for this purpose.

9.2.6 Whenever an employee wishes to put forth any claim, or seeks redress of any wrong done to him, he shall forward his case through proper channel, and shall not forward such advance copies of his representation to any higher authority, unless the lower authority has rejected the claim or refused relief, or the disposal of the matter is delayed by more than three months;

Provided that no employee shall be signatory to any joint representation addressed to the authorities for redress of any grievances or for any other matter.

9.3 General Code of conduct for all employees – Teaching & Non-teaching

9.3.1 No employee shall engage himself/herself or participate in any demonstration or resort to or abet any strike which is prejudicial to the interest or integrity or security or dignity of the Institute.

9.3.2 Every employee shall perform all duties defined in these Byelaws as well as assigned to him/her by the competent authority beyond the scheduled working hours and/or holidays or Sundays if the exigencies of work so demand.

9.3.3 Subject to the general law of the land, no employee shall:

9.3.3.1 Be under the influence of liquor or drugs while on duty.

9.3.3.2 Appear in public in a state of intoxication.

9.3.4 No employee shall, in any broadcast or in any document published anonymously or in his own name or in the name of any other person or in any communication to the press or in any public utterance, make any statement:

(i) which may have the effect of an adverse criticism of any policy or action of the Institute; or
